

REPUBLICANS BE LOYAL

Men of Clatsop, who stand for Republicanism and all it means, let us unite this day to win the battle for supremacy in Oregon. If differences, doubts or dubious things have troubled us in the past, let us forget them, and merge our known strength for the honor of the county and state, this day. Let us show the "Citizen-Democrats" that we are still the dominant party in Clatsop as we are in Oregon and that we know our place and power in determining the men and methods and measures that are best for this political division. What of personal divergence may exist among us, is nothing in the scale of importance to our regaining the prestige that is ours by right of fixed majority, here. To do the best that is in us, as Republicans, for our home and our state, let us vote unitedly today and share the common benefits that must surely accrue from such simple doing of our greatest duty. Anything less than this is wanton waste of a prime opportunity.

PARTY LEADERS EACH CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Both Democratic and Republican Leaders Claim
Complete Success Throughout the State.
Republicans Are Confident.

PORTLAND, June 3.—Both the democrats and republicans rested today, the only work done being some personal campaigning by a few candidates for county offices. The party leaders are both confident of the outcome and claimed the election of their tickets by safe majorities.

Chairman Alex Sweck of the democratic central committee tonight made the following statement to the Associated Press:

"I have made a complete poll of nearly every precinct in the state on governor and United States senator and from reports received. I am sure Chamberlain will win by probably 8600 and Gearin by 5300. Chamberlain will carry 17 counties and Gearin 13 counties. Galloway in the first district will win the congressional race by 1500. Chamberlain will carry Multnomah county by 1500 and Gearin by 2000."

Equally confident is Col. S. Spencer, secretary of the republican state central committee. He said:

"I estimate Withycombe and Bourne will carry the state for governor and United States senator, respectively, by 10,000 at the minimum. Both Hawley and Ellis will win the congressional race in the first and second district. No canvass is deemed necessary for congressman for both are safe, by 5000 at least. Multnomah county will give the entire state and congressional ticket about 500 majority."

ZEALANDIA ARRIVES.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The steamer Zealandia arrived today from San Francisco with an eventful passage. The Zealandia was the charter tow for the big side wheeler Olympian to this port. She sailed from San Francisco on January 31 with her tow. On March 13, while anchored in Possession Bay (Punta Arenas) a heavy gale sprung up and the Olympian parted her hawser and drifted ashore. She was floated, but before getting into deep water broke adrift and foundered again. She lies in an easy position and Captain Roberts has every hope of her being ultimately floated. Her crew of sixteen men was transferred to the Zealandia and brought here.

TRouble AGAIN BREAKS OUT.

LOS ANGELES, (Special, 2:30 p. m.), June 4.—A special from El Paso, Texas, says: Renewed trouble broke out at La Canada late last night between the striking miners at Colonel Greene's mine and the Rurales under Colonel Kosterlitzky. Five rioters were killed and thirteen injured. One of the rurales was shot but not seriously injured. The trouble broke out shortly after the arrival of 200 Mexican troops from Hermosilla. All the men of the town and many women of the higher class of Mexicans are quartered in the home of Colonel Greene, which is under guard.

ELEVEN KILLED.

PROVIDENCE, June 3.—The street car accident this morning in which eleven were killed and a score injured, two of whom died was caused by the motorman's unfamiliarity with the road. He allowed his car to coast too rapidly down grade, not knowing of the sharp curve below. The car was thrown twenty feet from the track. In an effort at rescue a large joist was used to raise the car so the imprisoned passengers could escape. Two succeeded in getting out when the joist broke and the car fell back killing two of the injured. The rescuers again raised the car and by building a pile of heavy stones it was kept in position while the killed and injured were removed.

REBELS MURDER THIRTY.

LONDON, June 3.—The Telegraph's Tokio's correspondent says the rebels at Hongju, Corea, murdered thirty members of a political society and are looting right and left.

MOORS BEHAVE.

GIBRALTAR, June 3.—On the threat that the British warship would bombard them, the Moors desisted in their attack on the British steamer Craighall, from Cardiff for Savona, which is ashore at Point Ceres.

FISHERMEN ATTENTION.

Merchants and fishermen voters, these are cold facts. Governor Chamberlain did not sign the fishing bill to extend the salmon season as the laws of 1905 will show.

Governor Chamberlain did not stand by the fishermen of the lower Columbia River on any fish legislation at the last session of the Legislature, for he signed none.

Governor Chamberlain vetoed three bills for the protection of fish.

No person has fought the fishing interests of the lower Columbia River any more than F. A. Seufert, who has many wheels on the upper Columbia River and does seining very close, if not upon spawning bars and shallow waters where fish are wont to lie, and who caught upon said bars and in holes adjacent to same in his seines about 80 tons of fish in one day of 24 hours.

The interest of F. A. Seufert is directly against the interests of the lower Columbia River fishermen and business men.

Governor Chamberlain vetoed a bill closing hatchery streams and prohibiting fishing on spawning bars or shallows, and which is a direct blow to your interests.

F. A. Seufert presided at the Chamberlain meeting at the Dalles, Ore., on May 23, 1906.

You can draw your own conclusions as to the reason for the vetoing of the bill for the protection of the salmon and prohibiting fishing on the spawning bars which was vetoed by Governor George E. Chamberlain.

If Governor Chamberlain had your interests at heart, why did he not sign the bill extending the fishing season and not file it with the Secretary of State without his signature?

What bill did he sign which is a benefit to the fishing industry on the lower Columbia River?

The business people of Astoria raised a sum of money to defray the expenses of a committee to go to Salem during the session of the Legislature to further legislation to the interests of the fishing industry.

Mr. H. M. Lorentsen, one of the committee, was present during the session of 1905 when the bill for the protection of the fishing industry was prepared, and he appeared before the committee on fisheries in both houses, as a representative of the fishermen, was satisfied section by section of the bill prepared and which was passed by both House and Senate unanimously and went to the Governor in that shape, and the Governor vetoed the bill.

Now you find Mr. Lorentsen one of the members of the committee who attended the Legislature and used the money donated by the people for the purpose of defraying their expenses, working for George E. Chamberlain's election. He, knowing that Governor Chamberlain vetoed the bill in which he and all the lower Columbia River fishermen were directly interested, and which is inconsistent on the part of Mr. Lorentsen.

Governor Chamberlain has been tried and is opposed to your interests.

All circulars are by the executive committee.
Be sure and go to the polls and vote for James Withycombe for Governor, as he is your friend.

BOMB THROWER SUICIDES WHEN HE IS ARRESTED

Anarchist Who Attempted to Kill Alfonso and His Bride is Detected. Kills Officer and Then Shoots Himself.

MADRID, June 3.—The capture and suicide Saturday night at Torrejon De Ardos of Manuel Morales, the chief suspect as to the bomb outrage against Alfonso and Victoria, adds another dramatic chapter to the events surrounding the royal wedding. It was eight o'clock on Saturday evening when Morales, disguised as a workman, entered the station at Torrejon de Ardos. He asked a child who was in charge of the office the time of the departure of the next train for Barcelona. Then he sought food in a nearby shop where his Catalonian accent attracted attention. His new workman's suit and the fact that his face and manners showed him to be above his station, were also noticed. A private watchman from a neighboring estate, who chanced to be present noticed his resemblance to the description given of the man seen on the balcony from which the bomb was thrown. The guard also noticed the man's wounded finger, and a small fresh scar on his forehead. The stranger strolled away, but the watchman intercepted him and demanded his identity.

Morales Shoots Himself.

Morales declined to give this, whereupon the guard arrested him, instantly Morales drew a revolver and shot the guard dead. Morales started up the road, but a small group of villagers barred his passage and turning around Morales deliberately pointed the weapon to his heart and fired. The fact that there was nothing on the body to lead to identification created doubt whether the man was Morales; but when the governor of Madrid arrived with Cuesta, the identification was positive. The body was then brought to Madrid, as the villagers at Torrejon de Ardos, indignantly refused to permit interment in that town. The body of Morales was exposed this afternoon for the purpose of allaying public indignation. Public feeling is intense, because of the great number of victims and it is seldom a bomb explosion has such a deadly effect; in this instance there being twenty-four killed and more than eighty wounded. The final disposition of the body is not yet determined, but the public demands an ignominious burial.

Fear Another Bomb.

The gala performance tonight at the opera had a remarkable interruption. It was discovered Saturday that one ticket for the performance was missing. This had a suggestive meaning as the officials scrupulously keep track of the distribution of all of them. The entire issue was cancelled and another of a different color substituted. The change caused great confusion, but was considered imperative, in order to guard against the possibility of the missing ticket giving access to a person, who might throw a bomb.

WILL NOT CROSS BORDER.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The probabilities are that the four troops of cavalry, which went to Naco on account of the riot at La Cananea, Mexico, will be ordered to Fort Huachuca in a few days. Word comes from Colonel Stewart, the commanding officer at Fort Huachuca, that it was never intended the cavalry should cross the border with a view of assisting in quieting the trouble except on explicit orders from Washington. According to a despatch the officials state tonight there is no fresh development from a military standpoint.

SITUATION AGAIN NORMAL.

BISBEE, Ariz., June 3.—The situation at La Cananea is again normal. The American volunteers who went across the line at Naco with Governor Ysabel at Sonora Saturday returned to Bisbee this morning. Their services were no longer needed. The town is now under martial law and Colonel Kosterlitzky of the Mexican Rurales is disarming the Americans and Mexicans alike. A conservative estimate of the number killed in the two days' fighting is thirty-six Mexicans and six Americans.
